

Collaborators

All those who engage with the CRE and help develop it, seeking and/or offering support: communities, civil society organisations, Indigenous Peoples, social movements, networks, experts, academics.

Community Resource Exchange (CRE)

Regional Grants Working Groups

They will be responsible for deciding grants applications and identifying application requirements, deadlines, and priorities for funding requests. They may also help identify potential linkages and collaborations.

Who does what?

International Coordinator and Regional Facilitators

The Coalition for Human Rights in Development (a global network of +100 social movements, civil society organizations, and grassroots groups) will host the CRE and coordinate it through:

1 International Coordinator

Asia

Africa

Latin America

3 Regional Facilitators

and with support from the other staff members of the Coalition's Secretariat and the Regional Coordinators.

Advisory Committee

Composed by 13 members and responsible for advising on and monitoring the overall programmatic strategy and operations of the CRE pilot.

Nodes

The CRE regional facilitators will identify and engage with individuals or groups who are well connected with community-led work at the national or regional level and/or in specific strategy areas to help:

- review requests
- identify collaborators
- assist in due diligence
- serve on the Regional Grant Working Groups.